BREED THEATER.

Brilliant and Inspiring Programme of Pictures.

Another full house at each performance was the condition at the Breed theater Monday, and every picture and song received its full share of applause and approval.

The big feature picture, entitled "The Remuneration," is one of the high-class comedy motion pictures that have made such a hit for the breed and give every clever acting is so excellent that much of the conversation that takes place between the actors, is readily understood by the audience, who are not slow to do so. In the excruciatingly funny climax to this picture, one of the male characters makes a statement that is so appropriate and so easily understood that the audience just roars.

A splendid educational feature, is the real named "The Spanish Army," and is extremely interesting for it shows at a close range many incidents of the life of a Spanish soldier. In the first picture there is an excellent view of the Plaza at Madrid, where in the foreground is a magnificent altar upon which mass is being celebrated in the presence of the devout multitude. The recruits are then seen taking the oath before the altar, after which each one passes under the flag, which he kisses with deep veneration, later to be seen marching down the main thoroughfare, presenting a most inspiring picture. In the next picture they are seen in camp where they are shown on dress parade and being put through their marching drill.

"The King's Conspiracy" is a thrilling picture of the old days, and shows one of the most spirited duels ever seen. "Led Astray" is the title of a pathetic picture-story adapted from the celebrated play "East Lynne." The programme includes other features, and is on the whole, one of the best of the programmes that have preceded it. To say that Master Harry Newman made a hit is an understatement. He has been the star of the evening, and his performance has been the highlight of the evening.

His very artistic rendition of the concert song, "The Lilac and the Rose" was the admiration of all.

LINCOLN PARK.
One of the cleverest and most entertaining bills of the season at Lincoln park was put on last night and the good sized crowd that went down to see it declared it was the best moment in the whole to minutes that has been occupied by the five acts.

Hamilton and Howlett are decidedly good in "Reuben Hanks" and their banjo and violin playing won hearty encores. Marie Elmer, the balladist, had a sweet, flexible voice which was heard to excellent advantage in her three numbers. Billy Barlow, a rosy-cheeked little comedian, and Lillian Franklin, a voluptuous blonde of ample physique, have a good funnimer in "Bits from Here and There" and Billy's local hits are appreciated. Nat Gill, the comedian and ventriloquist, has four dummies and contrives to work the quartette for 15 minutes of fun and laughter. The closing act, Strick and London, in their "Bicycle" act, hand-springing and tumbling, introduces some uncommonly bold and pretty acrobatic work, particularly when the pair jump blindfolded into a barrel placed on top of a table in the center of the stage.

Although Rustic theater closes Sept. 5, the park will be open for some days after that date, and there will be attractive shows of which announcement is to be made later.

Thursday night the fireworks start promptly at 8 o'clock.

The Congo Free State, in mid-Africa, has 900,000 square miles of territory. At present its imports amount to only about $4,000,000 a year, consisting mainly of cotton piece goods, liquors and beer, canned meats, vegetables and other food products, stationery and other necessities. Clothing, arms and ammunition, hardware and metals. The chief products of the country are rubber, ivory, gun coral, and palm oil.

Consul Solomon Berlinger of Tennessee, Century Island, reports that the Union Miniere du Haut Katanga has ordered from a large American manufacturing company a plant for treating 1,000 tons of copper ore daily, which means, when the smelting works are in full operation at the Star mine, that 2,500 to 3,000 tons of copper will be produced monthly.

China has three crops of tea—the spring crop in April, the summer crop in May and the "even flower" crop about the first of July. The export season for tea throughout the year. Three crops of rice are harvested. Export of this product is prohibited.

Extensive irrigation works are contemplated in a bill which has been presented to the Brazilian congress, the cost to be defrayed by the issue of bonds and the work to be done by the railway companies in whose zones run the rivers to be improved.

Travelers require no license in Turkey, nor do they pay any taxes. They must, of course, be furnished with a passport duly vided by a Turkish consul, and can travel from point to point in the empire with a license, or traveling permit, which can be secured at a cost of only 60 cents through the American consul at the first Turkish port, and be endorsed from city to city at a cost of 10 cents.

Old doctor—I was successful in my first case. Young doctor—Indeed? Old doctor—Yep. The executors of his estate paid him bill without a murmur. Cleveland Leader.
